

Twin Cities Nonviolent

Twin Cities Nonviolent (TCNV) is a network for expanding best practices in violence prevention and recovery. TCNV invites you to submit a workshop or event for resilience and peace during our 10 Days Free from Violence, September 20-29, 2019.

TCNV Collaborators share samples of their work from 6:30-8:30pm every 4th Wednesday of the month. See our website for more details.

Workshops and Events for 10 Days Free from Violence are being planned on the themes of:

- A Walk for Planet Peace: Honoring Gandhi's Vision for His 150th Birthday;
- Doing Good Together's Festival of Giving and the 28th Black Master Storyteller Festival;
- A DJ'd celebration honoring supporters of Coming Out of Bondage, bringing women out of sex trafficking;
- Readings by authors who write about peace and social justice, including fiction writers, children's book writers and local authors;
- Many other workshops and events related to keeping our Twin Cities sustainable and peaceful.

Five Ways to Engage:

1. Steering Committee: guide the vision and strategies of Twin Cities Nonviolent.
2. Collaborator: Attend collaborator meetings as possible and agree to host an event during the 10 Days Free from Violence and to spread the word about the opportunity.
3. Sponsor: Donate funds either to the Twin Cities Nonviolent General Fund or to an equity fund to support engagement of hosts from communities that are marginalized, i.e., youth, people of color, people in re-entry from incarceration, people with low incomes, indigenous people, immigrant communities and disability groups.
4. Supporters: People who are willing to spread the word about Twin Cities Nonviolent and to help with publicity for our events.
5. Solidarity: national and world allies, people from outside the Twin Cities who support our Twin Cities being free of violence.
